Everything Rise and fall on leadership”

John C Maxwell

A strategy is a coordinated and integrated set of five choices.

1. a winning aspiration
2. Where to play
3. How to win
4. Core capabilities
5. Management systems

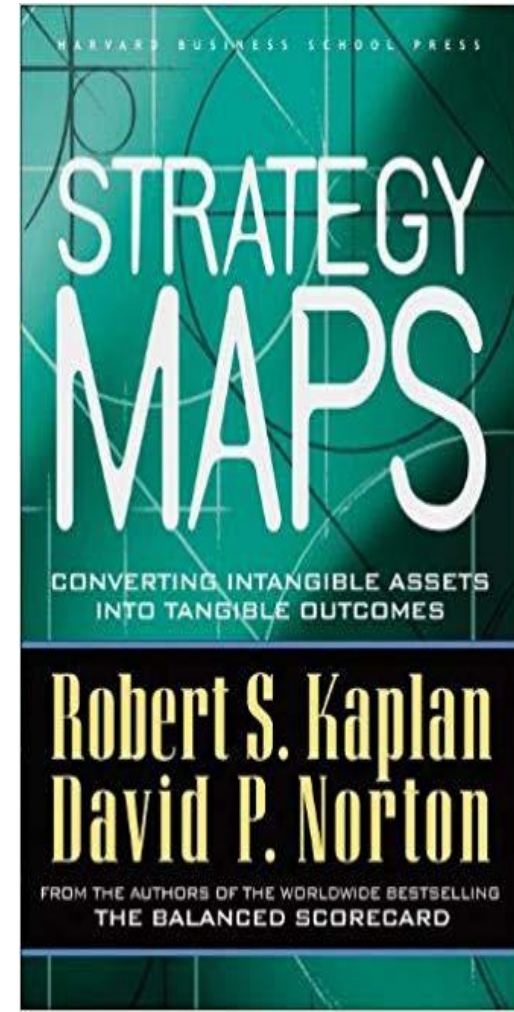

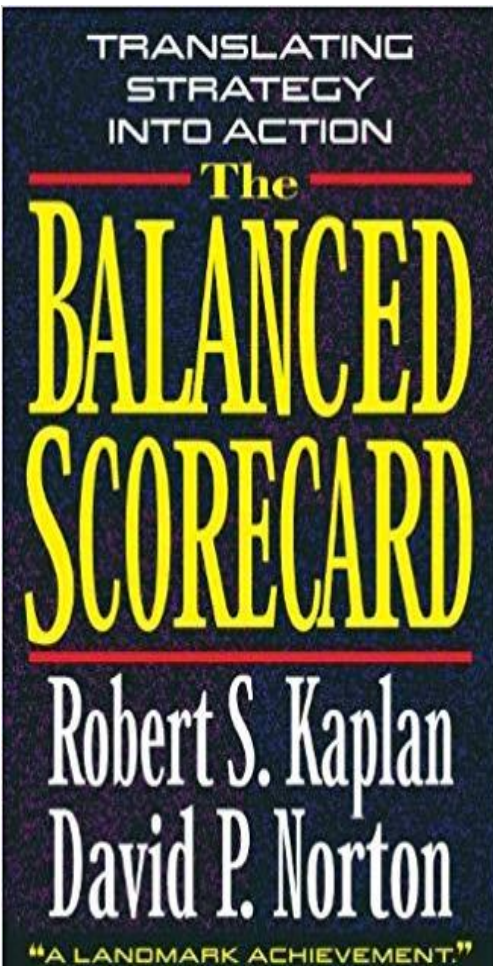

Successful Strategy Execution

- Breakthrough result = Strategy Map + Balance Scorecard + Strategy Focused Organization

Skills

Values

Time Application

The Leadership Pipeline model provides a framework upon which organizations can be built while reconfiguring old ones.

At each passage a person has very specific values, compulsory skills, and necessary time applications.
